CEO, Cluj International Airport

Aviation-Event once again reveals to the world the true Gateway to Transylvania!

Cluj International Airport, the main gateway to the north-western region of Romania, is proud to host the 5th edition of Aviation-Event. This prestigious gathering marks the fourth time Aviation-Event has chosen Cluj-Napoca, further solidifying the region's importance on the global aviation map.

Strategically located in one of the country's most dynamic economic areas, Cluj International Airport has become a benchmark for growth and innovation in the aviation sector. Over the past decade, the airport has consistently demonstrated its capacity to leverage the full potential of its catchment area, transforming itself into a key destination for both business and leisure travelers.

The journey of Cluj International Airport is one of ambition and vision. From serving 36,000 passengers annually in 1996 to exceeding 3.58 million passengers in 2025, this milestone is a testament to the airport's strategic investments in infrastructure and its commitment to delivering exceptional services. As a model of best practices, the airport is now regarded as a leading example in South-Eastern Europe for its forward-thinking approach and significant achievements.

Aviation-Event 2026 CLJ will be held in Cluj-Napoca, a city known as the "Heart of Transylvania," that highlights the region's unique combination of heritage and innovation. As a multicultural and academic hub, Cluj-Napoca is a vibrant city that plays a vital role in Romania's cultural, economic, and industrial landscape. It stands as the ideal location for high-level discussions and collaborations that will shape the future of aviation.

Cluj International Airport is honored to welcome aviation leaders and professionals to this landmark event, fostering an environment where ideas, experiences, and solutions come together to drive progress in the global aviation industry.
